

Contents

Contributors	vii
Acknowledgements	x
1 Recognition and the International: Meanings, Limits, Manifestations Patrick Hayden and Kate Schick	1
Part 1 Meanings: Critical Interventions	23
2 Unsettling Pedagogy: Recognition, Vulnerability and the International Kate Schick	25
3 Ambiguity, Existence, Cosmopolitanism: Simone de Beauvoir and a Global Theory of Feminist Recognition Monica Mookherjee	45
4 Recognition, Multiculturalism and the Allure of Separatism Volker M. Heins	69
5 Recognition and Accumulation Tarik Kochi	85
Part 2 Limits: Recognition's Blind Spots	99
6 Lost Worlds: Evil, Genocide and the Limits of Recognition Patrick Hayden	101
7 In Recognition of the Abyssinian General Robbie Shilliam	121
8 The Recognition of Nature in International Relations Emilian Kavalski and Magdalena Zolkos	139
Part 3 Manifestations: International Orders and Disorders	157
9 Paternalistic Care and Transformative Recognition in International Politics Fiona Robinson	159

10	Recognition in the Struggle against Global Injustice Greta Fowler Snyder	175
11	Recognition in and of World Society Matthew S. Weinert	195
	Bibliography	217
	Index	243